

FRANK DUPREE'S OWN STORY

Pancho Tracked Through Pawnshop

SOUTHERN IRELAND APPROVES PEACE TREATY

VOTE UNANIMOUS THROUGH ABSENCE OF FOES OF PACT

De Valera and Followers Fail to Attend Session—Provisional Government Is Established

DUBLIN, Jan. 14.—(By the Associated Press.)—The Anglo-Irish treaty creating the Irish Free State was unanimously ratified today by the South Ireland parliament.

Edmond De Valera and his supporters who opposed the treaty in the dail eireann were absent.

A provisional government was constituted comprising Michael Collins, William Cosgrave, Eamon J. Duggan, P. J. Hogan, Finian Lynch, Joseph McGrath, Prof. John MacNeill and Bryan O'Higgins.

The parliament met under clauses 17 and 18 of the Anglo-Irish treaty, which made the members of the southern Irish parliament elected under the government of Ireland act of 1920 the body which should ratify the treaty and take measures for constituting a provisional government.

The meeting was held in the oak room of the Mansion house. The entire dail eireann, including the members elected for Trinity college had been summoned, but only those who favored the treaty attended. The agenda contained a resolution calling for ratification of the treaty and further resolutions appointing eight ministers to comprise the provisional governing body.

The list, which was duly ratified by the meeting, is identical with a list of dail eireann, with the addition of Prof. John MacNeill, speaker of the dail, and Finian Lynch, who was one of the secretaries of the London delegation.

The list of ministers does not include Arthur Griffith, president of the dail, nor George Gavin Duffy, the dail's minister of foreign affairs, presumably because foreign affairs, although they will be within the competence of the free state when constituted, will not be formally handled by the provisional transitional government.

The strike on the Irish railroads, which had been called to take effect at midnight tonight, was postponed one month as a result of today's conference between representatives of the workers and the employers.

SINN FEINERS FREED FROM BELFAST PRISON

BELFAST, Jan. 14.—(By the Associated Press.)—Nineteen Sinn Fein prisoners were released here today. The streets surrounding the prison were strongly guarded by soldiers and police, but there was no public demonstration.

Eleven Temporary Jury Members Are Secured For Arbuckle Trial

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 14.—(By the Associated Press.)—A jury to try Roscoe Arbuckle for a second time on a charge of manslaughter arising from the death of Miss Virginia Rappé last September, was to be continued in superior court today. When court adjourned yesterday eleven temporary jurors were in the box and eight members had been examined from a special venire of thirty-five summoned from another department of the court.

The original venire of sixty-five called for the trial was exhausted before noon yesterday.

TELEPHONE

Your Want Ad to The Journal for Sunday as soon as you can.

The early editions of The Sunday Journal have good circulation, which you miss unless your copy is received in time to be set and classified before press time Saturday evening.

Everybody looks to The Sunday Journal to meet the thousands of needs and opportunities in the Want Columns.

Call
IVY 6000

and ask for the Want Ad Department.
Call as early as you can, please.

Prisoner, Escaped From Federal Pen, Gives Himself Up

SCHENECTADY, N. Y., Jan. 14.—George Lewis, of Cleveland, walked up to a patrolman here today and asked to be taken to jail, saying he was wanted as a fugitive from Atlanta prison. He said he was sentenced in federal court at Buffalo in July, 1920, for robbing the mails. Several months ago he said, he absconded himself in a box car at the prison, and was locked in. He cut his way out.

Officials at the local federal prison stated that Lewis escaped from the "honor farm" of the prison at Pantherville, some ten miles from the penitentiary, in November, 1921, by walking off while at liberty as a "trustee." They said his sentence of two years for robbing the mails would have expired in February. His home is in Schenectady.

ALLEGED BANDIT PICKS CELL LOCK

The distinction of burglarizing a cell in the Atlanta police headquarters belongs to J. J. Ryan, alias Timothy Lotsey, alias "Stuttering Jimmy," who is wanted in Illinois for the murder of two men, for postoffice robbery, and on two charges of highway robbery. In which $95,000 was secured at one time and $12,500 at another, according to police officials.

A heavy guard was placed over Lotsey Friday night when it was discovered that he had picked the lock on his cell, then picked the lock on the storage cell used by Dr. S. D. Warnock, the city physician, and secured a quantity of morphine and other narcotics which Dr. Warnock kept at police headquarters.

"You will have to guard me," Lotsey is said to have told the police when it was discovered he had picked the cell locks. "There is not a lock made that I can't open, and if you want to keep me here you sure will have to guard me."

Police Chief Beavers said Saturday morning no charges would be made against Lotsey for the burglary of Dr. Warnock's cell. Sheriff B. L. Dunbar, of Taylorville, Ill., turned in Lotsey Saturday morning when he returned to Taylorville, where he will be placed on trial for the murder of "Peg" Lockhart, and for participation in the robbery of the bank messenger for the Kincaid Trust and Savings bank, where $85,000 in cash was secured by the highwaymen.

Lotsey was arrested at the office of the American Railway Express company Tuesday, when he tried to make against Lotsey for the burglary of Dr. Warnock's cell. Sheriff B. L. Dunbar, of Taylorville, Ill., turned in Lotsey Saturday morning when he returned to Taylorville, where he will be placed on trial for the murder of "Peg" Lockhart, and for participation in the robbery of the bank messenger for the Kincaid Trust and Savings bank, where $85,000 in cash was secured by the highwaymen.

The trunk which Lotsey was trying to get was searched by the police, and a quantity of soap, several drills and some candles, all said to be yegg's tools, were found. Lotsey's wife was also arrested and held on a charge of suspicion, but was released Saturday by Chief Beavers on information from Sheriff Dunbar that she was not wanted. A Hudson touring car in which Lotsey is said to have traveled to Atlanta is being held by the police.

Lotsey, according to Sheriff Dunbar, is wanted for the murder of a bank messenger in East St. Louis, Ill., a postoffice robbery at Springfield, Ill., and highway robbery in Taylorville, in addition to the charge of murdering "Peg" Lockhart.

Bob Lockhart, who was killed, is also wanted by the police, and a careful search is being made for him in Atlanta.

Sheriff Dunbar said that after robbing the Kincaid bank messenger of $95,000, the gang, which included Lotsey and Bob Lockhart, went to "Peg's" house for dinner, and after they had eaten killed "Peg" because he knew too much about the robbery.

Lotsey stoutly maintained his innocence of the charge of killing "Peg" Lockhart, or of any connection with the Kincaid bank robbery. He admitted that he was under a $10,000 bond for a postoffice robbery in Illinois, and that he had served two prison terms, one of them for eight years on the Chattanooga county charging, and another term of two years in the United States penitentiary at Leavenworth, Kan., for a postoffice robbery. He refused to tell what he was charged with in Chattanooga county. He waived extradition. His wife is to travel with her husband to Taylorville.

A reward of $1,000 offered for his arrest will probably be paid to Detectives Hamilton and Hollingsworth.

Surrender of Teutons Charged With War Offenses Is Urged

PARIS, Jan. 14.—(By the Associated Press.)—Surrender of the Germans charged with the offenses in connection with the war to the allies for trial is recommended in two resolutions adopted by the interallied commission on war crimes, made public today.

G. O. P. LEADERS PLAN TO DISBURSE BONUS WITHOUT TAX LEVY

Calls for Payment With Interest on Foreign Debts or Sale of Bonds Issued Against Principal

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—The United States will pay a soldier bonus without one cent of additional taxation upon the people, under plans Republican leaders in congress were working on today.

This plan, as announced some time ago calls for paying the bonus with interest on the foreign debt or by the sale of bonds issued against collection of the war debt principal.

"The proposal that the foreign debt be used to pay the bonus undoubtedly will be adopted, if it proves feasible, and I believe it will," Representative Fordney, chairman of the house ways and means committee, said. "President Harding is in favor of the plan and has personally commended it to the committee."

First Step

The first step in the bonus program will be the enactment of the foreign debt refunding bill, already passed by the house and shortly to be taken up in the senate. On the heels of the debt bill's passage, the house will bring out the bonus measure, pass it in short order and send it to the senate.

The bonus bill, as now planned, will carry no means of raising revenue, merely stating that payments are to be made from the foreign debt.

Under this plan, administration leaders doubt if payments of the bonus can be started before late next year. This doubt arises from the question of how long the commission created by the foreign debt refunding bill will need to whip the debt into shape so that money will start coming in.

Sales Tax Advocates

To pay the bonus the commission would collect immediately as much of the debt interest, amounting to about two billion dollars, as the debtor nations were able to pay, and the rest of the bonus money would be raised through the sale of debt bonds.

A powerful attempt will be made in both branches of congress to have the bonus money raised by a sales tax. Advocates of this tax contend that hooking the bonus up with the foreign debt puts the bonus on an extremely uncertain basis and will not guarantee payments.

W. L. Payne, Ex-Sleuth, Is Denied New Trial by Judge John Humphries

W. L. Payne, former city detective under a chaining sentence for bribery, was denied a new trial by Judge John D. Humphries, of the Fulton superior court, Saturday. An Allen, Payne's lawyer, announced that an appeal would be taken. Meanwhile, Payne will remain at liberty under bond of $10,000.

Immediately after his conviction several months ago Payne filed a motion for a new trial. The hearing Saturday was brief, lasting less than fifteen minutes. Judge Humphries ruled the grounds on which the motion was based were not well taken.

Detective Payne was one of the storm centers in the recent hango investigation by a special committee of city council. Nat McWhorter, a negro bootlegger, appeared as star witness against Payne, charging he had paid the detective $20 weekly for many months for immunity from police raids on his place under the Courthouse street viaduct, less than a stone's throw from police headquarters.

The detective's conviction in the hango case was secured on McWhorter's testimony, practically unopposed. He was given the limit for a misdemeanor—a $1,000 fine and a six month jail sentence.

President Announces Will H. Hays Shortly Will Quit the Cabinet

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—(By the Associated Press.)—Postmaster General Hays shortly will retire from the cabinet, was made at the White House today.

After a forty-minute conference with the postmaster general, President Harding said he could not "well interpose any objection" to Mr. Hays' retirement to become head of a national association of motion picture producers and distributors.

The postmaster general in discussing the matter informally said no date for his retirement had been decided on, that motion picture men were awaiting his resignation with the motion picture producers.

FORECAST: RAPIDLY RISING TEMPERATURE!

WILLIAMS TO START SERVING SENTENCE

John S. Williams, under life sentence for murder in connection with the killing of eleven negro farm hands on his farm in Jasper county, will leave for the state prison farm at Milledgeville within the next ten

Greene S. Johnson, of Monticello, chief counsel for Williams, has announced that no motion for a rehearing will be made before the Georgia supreme court. The conviction and sentence of Williams

Williams was charged with having killed the negroes and then having fled to the hills. He had feared arrest on poonja charges. Williams will leave for Milledgeville as soon as the records are returned to the Newton county court. He will go to the Newton county court. He will go to the Newton county court. He will go to the Newton county court.

Attorney Johnson said he did not think a motion for a rehearing would be of any avail since the supreme court, in affirming the verdict, was unanimous. Several other indictments are still pending in Newton county against Williams.

His three sons, Marvin, Hyland and LeRoy Williams, who are also under indictment, have been at

A MESSAGE TO TIRED

SICK FOLKS
Don't Drag Through Life Half
Sick and Half Well.

Take This Advice

Go to your druggist and ask him for Gude's Pepto-Mangan and take it with your meals for a few weeks and see how your health improves.

If you are pale, tired, lack ambition and vigor, you know yourself that if you had plenty of red blood that you would not feel tired and half sick all the time. The only sure foundation of permanent health is pure blood. Gude's Pepto-Mangan builds up your blood with a form of iron that gets into your system quickly. It is wonderful. You will like it and it will make you feel so well and strong. Life will be worth living again. Try it and you will thank us for telling you about it. Druggists sell Gude's Pepto-Mangan in both liquid and tablet form. —(Advertisement.)

---

Skin Troubles
— Soothed —
With Cuticura

Colds can't make me quit work

"I USED to lay off many a day with my winter colds, but no more of that for me," Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey, with its balsamic, healing qualities gets right down to work at the first sign of a cold. Loosens up the phlegm, eases the irritation and stops the cough. Get a bottle from

YOUR DRUGGIST'S TODAY, 30c.

Dr. Bell's
Pine-Tar-Honey
for Coughs and Colds

5¢ BOTTLE IN ALL

A FRIEND IN NEED A FRIEND INDEED

Writes Mrs. Hardee Regarding Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Los Angeles, Calif. — "I must tell you that I am a true friend to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I have taken it off and on for twenty years and it has helped me change from a delicate girl to a stout, healthy woman. When I was married I was sick all the time until I took Lydia E.

Pinkham Vegetable Compound. I was in bed much of my time with pains and had to have the doctor every month. One day I found a little book in my yard in Guthrie, Oklahoma, and I read it through and got the medicines—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—and took eight bottles and used the Sautive Wash. I at once began to get stronger. I have got many women to take it just by telling them what it has done for me. I have a young sister whom it has helped in the same way it helped me. I want you to know that I am a 'friend indeed' for you wens a 'friend indeed.'—Mrs. GEORGE HARRIS, 11043 Byron St., Los Angeles, California.

Restores Color and Beauty to Gray and Faded Hair
60c. and $1.50 at Druggists.
Hills Chem. Wks. Paterson, N. J.

---

Catch That

Roach
Get rid of ROACHES, use $1000.00
GUARANTEED ROACH KILLER
Get rid of ANTS use $1000.00
GUARANTEED ANT BANE
Chinese Insecticide Laboratory
San Francisco, California

$30,000 ESTATE LEFT BY J. R. COMPTON

an estate valued at $30,000 was left by Mr. Russell Compton, well-known Atlanta business man who was slain mysteriously last week. He was driving his motor car out of a garage at the rear of the Nunley-McCrea overall plant on Trinity avenue. This was learned where his sisters, Mrs. C. C. White and Mrs. Andrew Hansell, filed a petition for letters of administration in the office of Judge Thomas H. Jefferson, ordinary of Fulton county.

Mr. Compton left no will and permanent administrators will be appointed by Judge Jeffries at the February term of his court. Solicitor General John A. Boykin and his investigators, co-operating with the police are actively engaged running down a number of clues which they hope will clear the mystery surrounding Mr. Compton's death.

Chief Beavers Replies To Department Critics In Civitan Address

"Some politicians—I mean the cheap ones, not the high class kind—are trying to drag the two departments through the mire of ward politics," said the chief, "and this is the worst thing that could possibly happen."

"Some of our critics are not in position to criticize. Men in glass houses should not throw stones, and though I am not calling anyone names, I have never sneaked around behind closed doors and plotted to ruin a man's character. That is the thing I won't do.

"I do not mind criticism. I am glad to stand all the criticism I get, and if it is constructive it is welcome, but it is manifestly unfair criticize the department for conditions that may exist when no remedy is suggested by the critics. "It has got to be a habit with me folks to insist that the city is in the grip of a 'crime wave.' If is, why don't somebody suggest a cause and the remedy?" "The police department employs out 225 policemen who are divided into three watches. It is an impossibility for one man to cover a beat mile long and a mile wide and be at both ends at the same time. I am glad that council has decided to have me fifty additional men. They will help immensely."

The club passed resolutions submitted by the intercivic council, asking the addition of enough men to the police department to "insure the protection of life and property," and during the state legislature to make burglary and highway robbery a capital offense.

English Girls Enter Competition for Men Of 'Eveless Eden,' S.C.

the absence of marriageable women has spread to London, England, and the bachelors of Donalds say that the women of Chicago and other cities, who are planning to invade the defenseless Eden may face the competition of English girls. Following a newspaper story about Donalds, proposals and requests to correspond with the bachelors came from girls in many states. The bachelor population immediately

When news of the Eveless Eden drifted to London, another situation more interesting than ever developed, and beaux are reported to be forcing their American friends to grant a "crush" on English girls, in whom they received letters from the South Carolina women about the French Revolution.

Personnel Association Hears George Phillips

association at a dinner at the codill cafe Friday night, told of the welfare work done among its employees by the Metropolitan organization, and advised every employer to insist upon both mental and physical examination of a prospective employee.

Mr. Phillips told of the benefits which had accrued to the Metropolitan organization in increased efficiency and lessened labor turnover ough the company's system of welfare work. Every employee is given free medical examination and treatment, he said, and recreation funds have been provided. In addition, the working hours have been reduced from 8:30 to 5, to 9 o'clock, with regular rest periods.

Bureau to Meet

The twentieth annual meeting of the Atlanta Freight Bureau will be held on January 19, at 6:30 o'clock, at the Piedmont Hotel. The meeting was not held last Thursday evening, as erroneously published.

W. B. Eastman, a member of the Interstate Commerce Commission, will be the guest of honor and president.

speaker. Reports of the officers will be submitted for the work of the past year, and a board of directors will be elected.

---

Negro Tells Police Bandits Took Money

Thomas Grant, a negro, of 180 Joy street, reported to the police Friday that he was relieved of $22 in cash about 10:30 o'clock at corner of Hemphill avenue and with street by two unidentified thwaymen. One of the men cov-him with a pistol, he said, while other made a search of his kets and removed the $23.

LANDMENT
SUNDAY NIGHT
ERIAN CHURCH

THE HEART PIRATES

By HAZEL DESO BATCHELOR
HART & PUBLIC LIT. CO.

Theodore Caldwell has become engaged to Jimmy Bland and to her surprise is not happy about it. She tells her employer, Richard Blakeslee, that she is leaving to be married, and because he feels she has no rights aside from his wishes he kidnaps her and carries her off on his yacht, bound for a business trip in South America. Theo at first refuses to work, and then a storm brings her into more personal relations with Richard Blakeslee, so that he sees her for the first time as a woman, instead of an office machine. Theo feels that a business relationship must be re-established, and decides to give into him, but a broken propeller carries the yacht out of its course and changes the plan of the trip.

CHAPTER XXIV

The Stolen Clothes

LATE in the afternoon Theo decided to lie down and try to sleep, inasmuch as there was nothing else to do, and slipping out of her suit she curled up in the chair. When she awoke dusk had fallen, but the yacht was still drifting.

She rose and snapped on the electric lights, but when she turned back to the chair on which she had left her suit there was nothing there.

She started back in amazement. She remembered so well having her coat on the back of the chair with her skirt folded up under it. But they were no longer there, that much was certain.

Suddenly suspicious, she flew to the door. It was unlocked. She had forgotten to lock it after the steward had carried out her tray. Some one, no doubt, Mrs. Breen, had come into the cabin while she had been sleeping and carried away her clothes.

Making an effort to be calm, Theo rang the bell that summoned a steward and waited for him to knock at her door. But when the knock finally came and she called, "Come in," it was Mrs. Breen who opened the door and stepped into the room.

"Yes, Miss Caldwell," she said urbanely, that same little twinkle that Theo had grown to distrust in her light blue eyes.

"Do you know anything about my clothes?" Theo asked abruptly. "They were on that chair when I went to sleep."

"Yes, Mrs. Breen returned calmly. "I took them."

Theo stared. "You took them?" she repeated after a moment. "Would you mind telling me why?"

"I'm sorry, but that's impossible," Mrs. Breen said. "You mean, you won't get it?"

"I can't. I must do as Mr. Blakeslee orders," she said.

She looked at Theo expectantly, evidently under the impression that the girl would show signs of temper, but Theo had no intention of giving Mrs. Breen that satisfaction.

"Very well," she said turning away with a show of indifference, although she had an almost uncontrollable impulse to rush up to Mrs. Breen and shake her until she begged for mercy.

The older woman lingered. "See here, Miss Caldwell, why can't you be sensible?" she began. "Mr. Blakeslee intends to be kind, he—"

But Theo interrupted fiercely. "You needn't go on, Mrs. Breen, after all, it's not your affair."

Mrs. Breen shrugged her shoulders and marched out of the room, leaving Theo with the realization that

BURGESS BEDTIME STORIES

By Thornton W. Burgess

Old Man Coyote's Secret Is Out
All secrets, 'tis the law of fate,
Will be discovered soon or late.
—Old Man Coyote

FARMER BROWN'S BOY gave a long whistle of surprise as he stared at an opening under the attack of straw in the barnyard. The hanging straw partly hid it, but plainly it was the entrance to a hiding place under the stack. Had he found a small opening he wouldn't have been surprised, for he knew that a strawstack is often made use of by some of the smaller people who wear fur. But this opening was big enough for a dog.

Farmer Brown's Boy knelt down and peeped in, but it was too dark under that stack for him to see anything. Right away he thought of Reddy Fox. "I wonder," said he, "if that sly scamp has been making his home here right in our very barnyard. And I wonder if he is here now. Bowser will soon find out."

He stood up and whistled for Bowser the Hound, who was up by the house. Bowser came at once, wagging his tail as he trotted along. "Here, Bowser, see if anybody is in there," commanded Farmer Brown's Boy as he pointed down to the opening under the stack. Obediently Bowser put his nose and sniffed. He took only one good sniff and then backed away in a hurry, growling way down in his throat. The hair along his back and neck stood up and he started to run back to the house. It was only when his master spoke to him sharply that he stopped. Sleepily he came back part way, but nothing that Farmer Brown's Boy could do would make him come close up to that opening again.

Farmer Brown's Boy didn't know what to make of it. "Black Fussy was scared," said he, "and now Bowser is scared," said he, "and now Bowser is scared." Perhaps Jimmy Skunk is under there. Both Black Fussy and Bowser have learned to respect Jimmy Skunk. That must be who it is, though Jimmy never in the world made this big hole under the straw. Anyway, we'll soon find out."

He started for the barn to get a pitchfork to tear open that stack. Just as he reached the barn he looked back. He was just in time to catch a glimpse of a gray form before it disappeared back of the barn. He ran around behind the barn. Running across the snow covered Green Meadows as only he can run, was Old Man Coyote. He was heading for the Old Pasture. Too surprised to do anything but stare after him, Farmer Brown's Boy watched him out of sight.

"Well, I never!" he exclaimed as Old Man Coyote disappeared in the Old Pasture. The clever old rascal! I wonder how long he has been living under that stack? He is never under there. He is never in the world suspect him of living as close to us as that. I'll get that fork now and have a look at his den."

So Farmer Brown's Boy got the pitchfork and opened that stack of straw. He uncovered the snug den Old Man Coyote had made there. And he knew by the signs that it had been used for some time. Partly pushed under the straw at one side was a piece of brown paper. Farmer Brown's Boy pulled it out. Slowly a grin crept across his freckled face until the freckles ran together.

"The mystery of the lost meat is a mystery no longer," said he. "Old Man Coyote must have sneaked out from under here and grabbed that meat out of the basket while Dad and I were in the barn that day. I remember setting the basket down just a few feet from this stack. He had plenty of time to slip out, grab that meat and get back under here. The old sinner! No wonder we couldn't guess what had become of that meat. But I don't know as I am sorry he got it; guess he needed it more than we did."

That was just like Farmer Brown's Boy.

she could not even steal out for a walk on deck unless she wore some of the clothes that Richard Blakeslee had provided for her.

Once alone she shook with helpless rage, she had not known herself capable of such fury. She wanted to scream, to throw things about, but she forced herself to stand perfectly still in the middle of the room, until the first force of her anger passed and she could think.

(Monday—The King's Choice)

MUTT AND JEFFHERE'S ONCE WHEN BOTH OF THEM ARE RIGHT

BY BUD FISHER

PETEY—STEP TO THE HEAD OF THE CLASS

—By C. A. Voight

BELIEVE IT OR NOT

—BY RIPLEY

CAN YOU BEAT IT!

—BY MAURICE KETTEN

HAMBONE'S MEDITATIONS

By J. P. Ahey

AM CHARGED A GENT'MAN A DIME FUM SETTIN' ON A SHADE-TREE EN HE LOW AN OUGHTER DID DAT FUM NOTHIN' BUT SHUCKS! DATS JES' BOUT WHUT AN DID DO!

Copyright, 1933, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate, Inc.

FRECKLES AND HIS FRIENDS—TAG'S EYES ARE BIGGER THAN HIS STOMACH

—BY BLOSSER

EVERETT TRUE

—BY CONDO

LITTLE MARY MIXUP—MUST BUY 'EM AT THE BUTCHER'S!

—BY R. M. BRINKERHUFF

EDITED BY
MORGAN BLAKE

GOLF GOSSIP

BY O.B. KEELER

front to play all kinds of heroes from the caveman type to the de-bonair boulevardier and the dapper diplomat. He was the handsome colonel in "Lure of Egypt" and "the perfection of brutality," says Grace Kingsley in her drawings of him. And his picture, "Actor, athlete, gentleman is what Hobar Bosworth says of him—and the Hon. Hobart is qualified to say."

ANYWAY, we had a delectable party, and some of the most remarkable stories were told, under the influence of the lobster, positioned at I ever heard. Morris Mitchell, John E. Holland, Van Wilkinson, H. Grady Brim, Dr. George E. Woollard and Cliff Westheyl were the guests. The guests Mr. and Mrs. Hazel being hosts. Billy says he reckons he learned to cook watching the skilled and aged Seneca-plantation chef on the old Georgia plantation; but I'll bet he picked up that lobster trick somewhere else.

SEVERAL hundred thousand golfers scattered over this broad land are hoping today for a change in the rules of the United States Golf association, in Chicago, will officially cut down the out-of-bounds penalty to one stroke. But, those who live at a distance from the club, in this rule, and the objection to the stroke-and-distance penalty transcends by its very nature the question of distance. In principle, though it is hoped that also will be settled one way or another.

AS IT IS, the out-of-bounds rule can be modified to loss of distance. This would mean that if a ball gives rise, as pointed out recently in Atlanta, by Bob Martin, of the Capital City club, to differences in the two-stroke penalty, and those using the one-stroke penalty.

TOM PAINE, of Atlanta, who is to be elected a member of the U. S. G. A., has been asked to speak at the meeting tonight, did not go to the meeting, but it is understood that in from the heads of both the U. S. G. A. and the Western Golf association—of which he was for many years an executive officer—he advocated strongly the tendency toward liberalism in regard to the stylic, the out-of-bounds, the lost ball and the chain of the small regulations. Mr. Payne practically got the next national women's championship for White Sulphur—an ideal course and the chain of the small regulations. He got the national open championship for East Lake in 1923, with good prospects of success.

ACCORDING TO The Constitution, "No person shall be a Senator or Representative, or elector in any State, who, when elected, shall not have attained to the age of thirty years, nor have been seven years citizen of the United States, nor, when elected, learned his trade in a correspondence school."

Ethelda Bleibrey
Sets New Record

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Jan. 14.

Wins From Auburn

The state of Alabama suffered two defeats at the hand of her sister state, Georgia, yesterday. While Ethelda Bleibrey, world's champion woman swimmer, established a new middle Atlantic A. A. U. record last night in swimming the 100-yard handicap event for women in 1 minute, 71.5 seconds. The old record of 1:59 was held by Olga Dorfner, of this city.

Strangler Lewis Throes Harcel

SAVANNAH, Ga., Jan. 14.—Using his newly-perfected hold which he calls his grapevine twist and leg lock, Ed ("Strangler") Lewis defeated Orlando Herschel here tonight in the two straight falls, the first in 14 minutes and the second in 7 minutes.

termination between the halves?
A. Ten minutes.

Any questions concerning basketball rules will be answered through this column if mailed to Ed Thoro, care of our sporting department.

---

THE ATLANTA THEATRE

TODAY AT 8:30

LAST TIMES

The Brilliant Musical Comedy Hit

"THE RIGHT TONIGHT"

PRICES (All Performances)
75c to $2.50

3 DAYS STARTING 16
MONDAY, JANUARY
MATINEE WEDNESDAY
JOHN GOLDEN
Producer of "Tixie" and "Year Me"
"The First Year" and "Thank-U"
Presents the Record-Breaking Comedy

3

WISE FOOLS

Prices: 50c to $2.00—All Performances
SEATS NOW ON SALE

BECKETT'S
LYRIC THEATRE
WORLD'S BEST VAUDEVILLE

TODAY—2:30, 7:30, 9 P. M.
Coit Albertson & Co.
"The Tale of a Sail"
 Simpson & Dean    Stuart & Harris    Josephine Amoros
CAITS BROS.
 The Tailor Made Boys

GRAIN

Wheat Closed 1-8c to 3-8c
Off; Corn, Oats and Provisions Lower day. Argentine news was a factor as well as the lack of demand. A safe wheat was offered to a New York exporter at equal to $1.30 a bushel, and he was trying to place it in the west or at the seaboard. First, this looked bearish, as it required a 13c under gulf wheat, but the 35c import duty will tend to prevent the importation of this wheat. The lack of buying power also was received some support because of big discount under May and the poor crop outlook. Australian and Argentine wheat parcels were offered cheaper, according to private sales. Receipts were light. Corn prices caused a late rally.

Cash corn was featureless and quiet. The market closed 38c lower; 52 3-4 @ 52 7-8; July, 54 1-4 3-8.

market was influenced by the
of other grains. Shipping de was light. Shipping sales w 900 bushels. Market closed changed to 1-3c lower; May, 33
uly, 33 1-3c.

Provisions suffered substantial clines on selling credited to pa
Outside interests bought on break. Pork closed 30c lower;

10c lower, and ribs 1 1/2c low.

CHICAGO QUOTATIONS.

The following were the ruling prices at the exchange today:

	Open.	High.	Low.	Close.
WHEAT
May	1.11 1/2	1.11 3/4	1.10 1/2	1.11 1/4
July	1.00	1.00 1/2	.99 1/4	1.00
CORN
May	.52	.53 1/4	.52 1/2	.52 3/4
July	.54 1/4	.54 3/4	.54 1/4	.54 1/2
OATS
May	.35 1/2	.35 3/4	.35 1/4	.35 1/2
July	.36	.36 1/4	.35 3/4	.36
PORK
Jan.	.....	.....	.....	18.1 1/2
May	.....	.....	.....	18.1 1/2
LARD
Jan.	.9 1/2	9.65	9.00	9.40
March	.9 1/2	9.17	9.12	9.12 1/2
May	.9 1/2	9.40	9.40	9.82 1/2

RHS—
Jan.		8.35	8.35	8.35
May				8.22

RECEIPTS IN CHICAGO

Wheat	.....
Corn	.....
Oats	.....
Hay	.....

CHICAGO CASH QUOTATIONS

CHICAGO, Jan. 14.—Cash: Whe

hard, $1.10.
Corn No. 2 mixed, 43 1/2 @ 43 1/2; No.
low, 43 1/2 @ 43 1/2.
Oats No. 2 white, 37 1/2 @ 38; No.
37 1/2 @ 38.
Rye, nominal.
Barley, 53 @ 50.
Timothy seed, 35.00 @ 37.00.
Clover seed, 112.50 @ 115.00.
Port, nominal.
Lard, 5.02.
Ribs, 57.75 @ 57.75.

ST. LOUIS QUOTATION
ST. LOUIS: Jan. 14.—Wheat, 1
1.21@1.24; No. 4, 1.13@1.16; 1
July, 98½.
Corn: No. 2 white, 47; May, 1
98½.
Oats: No. 2 white, 37; May, 30.
NEW YORK COFFEE MAR
Open.
January ... ..
February ... ..

March	8.45
April	8.20
May	8.20
June	8.24
July	8.30
August	8.30
September	8.25
October	8.25
November	8.25
December	8.25

Any man can live with

Some phosphorescent deer catch their prey by means of lights from their glowing

TAX-FREE
City Coun

ool Bonds

ected by Taxation
Net 5% to 6%

Wilsman & Co.
ATLANTA

ING SOMEWHERE

the pleasure of having a journey. The other half is the destination.

...you are traveling for an added satisfaction when sum has been reached.

...gh you save but small amounts
is REGULARITY that counts

$1.00 Starts the Account
4% Interest Paid
A SAVINGS BANK & TRUST
Atlanta's Oldest Savings Bank

74 Peachtree St.

